According to fall into the small business loan category shown in figures 1 and 2, while private placement and CD purchasing programs would fall into the other ETIs category. Bond purchasing programs were conducted in Colorado and Minnesota. In Colorado, the pension plan purchased Colorado Housing and Finance A ) SB Authority bonds backed by U. S. Small Business Administration ( loans. The loans were made by local banks, and then the loans or loan participations were purchased and securitized by the authority. These loans were secured by either unguaranteed first liens subordinated by an second lien or a federal guarantee. According to an authority official, SBA 18 the bonds were backed by the general obligation of the authority. Businesses receiving loans under this program included a minority-owned day-care facility and a woman-owned construction firm. In Minnesota, the pension plan purchased bonds from the Minnesota Small Business Finance SBA Agency. The bonds were backed by the guaranteed portions of loans. The loans were made by local banks in Minnesota and then purchased and securitized by the agency. Loan purchasing programs were conducted in New York City and Wyoming. The New York City pension plan conducted two loan purchasing programs. Under one, the pension plan committed to purchase loans for 20 stores and offices in low-to moderate-income areas and had purchased one loan as of November 1, 1994. The loans will be underwritten by the...
