If 400 members can be secured for this policy the rate would be about one-third lower than the individual rate. It is hoped that this matter can be presented to the members in definite form in the near future. SECOND--That the following proposition be submitted to the entire membership of the Society for a referendum vote: That a fund be created for protection against mal-practice suits by increasing the dues one dollar per year. That out of this fund an attorney be employed whose duty it shall be to discourage threatened suits against any member of our Society in good standing, and in the event this is not possible, and the suit comes to trial, to fight the suit in the courts; it being understood that if, after exhausting...
