

The Border Next Door: New York Migraciones

By Carlos Ulises Decena, Margaret Gray

Duke University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Border Next Door: New York Migraciones, Carlos Ulises Decena, Margaret Gray, Addressing how national immigration concerns play out at urban, rural, and suburban levels in the state of New York, this special issue of "Social Text" offers new insight into an area of study that has long been focused primarily on cities. As new Latino/a immigrants change the culture and social fabric of small communities and reshape policy concerns, suburban and rural regions are becoming key locations for anti-immigrant acts and immigrant social justice organizing. This special issue presents immigrant stories and community and advocacy responses that underscore the need to recognize the diversity of Latino/a immigrant experiences, and it explores the widely varying responses of towns, counties, and both new and established immigrant groups to the race, ethnic, and class tensions usually associated with cities. While focusing on Central American and Mexican immigrants in New York state, the contributors to this issue - scholars, activists, artists, and filmmakers - situate their work within a national context and consider the paradox of the experience of Latino/a immigrants, who face increasing repression on the one hand and emerging opportunities on the...
