And these attending to my moving mind Shall only usher in the fitting sense. As oft as meet occasion I find, Unusuall words oft used give lesse offence; Nor will the old contexture dim or marre, For often used they re next to old thred-bare. And if the old seem in too rusty hew, Then frequent rubbing makes them shine like gold, And glister all with colour gayly new; Wherefore to use them both we will be bold, Thus lists me fondly with fond folk to toy, And answer fools with equal foolery. The meaner mind works with more nicetie As spiders wont to weave their idle web, But braver spirits do all things gallantly, Of lesser failings nought at all affred. So Natures careless pencill dipt in light With sprinkled starres hath spattered the night And if my notions clear though rudely thrown,...
