The meeting was called to order by the Hon. Emory Washburn and Charles W. Eliot, President of Harvard University was chosen Chairman. On taking the chair President Eliot said: - Ladies and Gentlemen: - We all feel a strong purpose, I doubt not, to do whatever in us lies to preserve the most interesting building which now stands in New England. Its life has been very gravely threatened. Before we can clearly decide what we will do in these premises, it is necessary to get a distinct view of what has already been done. I have heard it stated frequently during the last two or three months that the Old South has already been saved. I wish that were true; but it is very far from the truth. Thanks to the enthusiastic and devoted exertions of a few ladies during the past summer, this community has an opportunity of saving the Old South; but it is not saved. To buy it, about $400,000 must be raised sooner or later. Towards that sum, about $50,000 have already been contributed by a very large number of persons, a large proportion of the subscription being in small sums. The treasurer of the committee informs us that if $100,000 can now be raised in addition to this $50,000 by the...
