From the report of the board of officers General Schofield, General Terr, and Colonel Getty convened to examine and report on the evidence on which General Porter was cashiered, it appears, (page 3,) in their own words, that While the Army of the Potomac was withdrawing from its position on the James River in August, 1862, the Army of Virginia under General Pope was ordered to hold the line of the Rappahannock, and to stand on the defensive until all the forces could be united behind that river. General Pope was given to understand that when this concentration was effected Major-General Hal leek, the commander-in-chief, was to take the field in command of the combined armies. On the other hand, it appears that General McClellan, of the Army of the Potomac, was given to understand that he was to direct the operations of all the...
