Announcements of Marriage. Anniversary Weddings. Dinners. Social Parties. Balls. College Anniversaries. Various Occasions. . II. Acceptances And Regrets. I. Invitations. I. Invitations. Weddings. --Wedding invitations are issued ten days or more before the ceremony, by the parents or nearest friends of the bride. They may be written or printed on note paper or on cards; but the note form is generally preferred for all ceremonious invitations. Notes and cards may be printed either from engraved plates or from type. Those printed from plates are greatly superior in style and finish to the others, and are almost exclusively used by fashionable people. Answers. --If an answer is expected, the words, The favor of an answer is requested, or the letters R. S. V. P. , are written or printed at the bottom. (See Acceptances and Regrets, page 152. ) We give below a few models of wedding notes, the first and third being complete, the others requiring one or more cards: --Model 1. --Ceremony and Reception. I This model is printed in script type, in order to exhibit the style of the best engraved billets. To economize space we print some of the other models in ordinary type. Tuia displayed style should not be attempted in writing, except by a skilful penman. For ordinary writers the style of Model 4 is best. I The words the pleasure of your company seem to imply social Intercourse-, it is better, therefore, when persons are invited to...
