Excerpt: . now they are showing reverence to the Gods O the fallen country and their holy shrines, They shall not spoil then only to be spoiled: But let no lust be falling on them first 1/ From covetousness to plunder that they should not: The backward of the double course is yet To measure; they must win safe passage home. But let them only come without offence Toward Heaven, the grievance of the perished well May learn fair language, --if no sudden stroke Of casualty befall.--These are my thoughts, A woman s; but I pray Good speed prevail without all counterpoise! Great are my blessings; I would taste their joys. Elder. Thy woman s words, my Lady, Have all a wise man s judgment: now having heard Good warrant from thee, I ll address me next To the praise of Heaven, since to us...
